SUBJECT : ISLAMIC CONTEXTUALIZATION ON PEACE EDUCATION

DATE : January 26, 2022

1. The Ministry of Basic, Higher and Technical Education-Directorate General of Madaris Education will have a five-day workshop from February 20 to March 4, 2022, which will be attended by Traditional Madaris representatives as participants. The workshops will facilitate by MBHTE-DGME personnel tied up with The Asia Foundation staff (TAF).
2. The said activity is to instill the mandate of the DGME-Traditional Madrasah Support Section that serves as a pathway of the third leg in Peace Education program for the Traditional madrasah in Tawi-Tawi, Sulu, Basilan province, and Lamitan City, through the good relationship of MBHTE and TAF-who is the partner of this activity. It aims to review the following:
 - a. To contextualize the traditional madaris education into moderate Islamic standpoint;
 - b. Reconstruct the traditional way of teaching and school management system into innovative, sufficient, and effective way for the Traditional madrasah;
 - c. Conduct series of collaborative discussion and focus group discussions of addressing certain issues involving the learners, mudarris/teachers, administrators, and communities; and
 - d. Finalize the consolidated recommendations and suggestions for the Traditional Madrasah.
3. In this regard, the participants to join the abovementioned activity as seen in Annex A and the program flow as shown in Annex B are attached herewith.
4. Strictly follow the COVID-19 Inter-Agency Task Force (IATF) guidelines amidst the pandemic.
5. For information and dissemination.
