SUBJECT : MONITORING OF THE LEARNING CENTERS IN SCHOOL-LESS BARANGAYS

DATE : October 13, 2022

- The Ministry's flagship program Abot Kaalaman sa Pamilyang Bangsamoro (AKAP) was able to reach more than 90 barangays with support from the Pathways and was implemented in partnership with BRAC Philippines and the Consortium of Bangsamoro Civil Society (CBCS). Using the ministry's Alternative Delivery Modality, the school-less barangays were provided with quality education services that were based on their local context.
- To ensure the smooth operation of the program, the Regional Technical Working Group on ACCESS is organized to monitor Barangays and learning centers in Lanao del Sur 1, Lanao del Sur 2, Maguindanao 1, and Maguindanao 2 schools divisions. The team will conduct ocular inspections on the learning centers and community consultations to guarantee sustainable delivery of education services to the local communities.
- The monitoring activities shall be conducted on the following dates:
