Minister Iqbal:

Assalamu 'alaykum wa rahmatullahi wa barakaatuh!

The Bangsamoro Sports Commission will conduct the Paralympic Games from 16 to 19 November 2023. This is in response to the 6th of the 12-point agenda of the Bangsamoro Sports Commission (BSC) which states that "the BSC shall endeavor to promote inclusivity through sports for all programs that will cater to the health, fitness, recreation, and sports development of the people of BARMM to include women, differently abled persons, deprived of liberty (PDI) to participate, enjoy and gain benefits from physical activity and sports engagement and contribute in building peace, unity, and integration among the people of BARMM."

Furthermore, the Paralympics possess significance in our society as they promote inclusivity and empower those with difficulties. These games provide a venue for athletes of all levels to demonstrate their skills, inspiring others to overcome challenges. The Paralympics, through encouraging a culture of perseverance and drive, not only highlight the great achievements of para-athletes, but also challenge mainstream perceptions about disability. We celebrate diversity, promote equal opportunities, and pave the road for a more inclusive BARMM through these activities.

In this regard, the BSC would like to invite MBHTE's Division Sports Officers and SPED Focal Persons based in Cotabato City, Maguindanao del Sur, and del Norte to attend the meeting on 10 October 2023, 9:00AM at Bangsamoro Sports Commission's Conference Room. It will discuss possible arrangements for conducting the program, hopefully paving the way to the success of the program.

We look forward to your immediate and positive response regarding this matter. For coordination and concerns, please get in touch with us through FEMMIE P. PRADO at 0926-757-3103 or email us at bsc@bangsamoro.gov.ph
